Several YCC members attended the event and sold hot dogs. Due to the weather, it was not too well attended. The YCC was able to break even on the hot dogs sales by selling the remained to a parent to feed the Marching Band.   10. DISCUSS BACK TO SCHOOL CAMPAIGN EVENT AT CHICK FIL A
Hannah and Alyssa will go and meet with Dean at Chick Fil A to confirm an event date that will work for an evening event. Targeting the end of October. Also discussed a Halloween themed event. It was suggested that we possibly have booths with info (i.e. from MADD, Scholarship information, Say No To Drugs, Police Explorers, and info on No Bullying) for youth and teens available, however committee members felt that they would not be interested in this type of information at this type of event. Committee members prefer something like a cornhole tournament or a fun type of event, possibly with music or a band.

No other business.
  12. ADJOURNMENT
Allie moved to adjourn. Carter seconded this. Unanimous vote passed this motion. The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 PM.
