The council agreed on the points the youth council made about the survey questions not being specific or addressing topics many residents wouldn't know about.

Jeannine brought up the point that at many events they have someone sing the star spangled banner so we need to get one of the acts to sing it.

We discussed putting advertisements on school announcements and websites.

Alex Lubinecky's mother knows people who own food trucks, he could possibly get food trucks to come to our event.
